

Hazardous Occupations shall apply with effect from 1 July 2011 to all current and future workers.

The Bank of Greece commits not to grant pension privileges to its staff and to revise the main parameters of its pension scheme to align them with those of IKA.

By the first quarter 2012, Government implements the reform of the secondary/supplementary pension schemes, by starting the calculation of benefits on the basis of the new notional defined-contribution system. Government freezes nominal supplementary pensions and reduces the replacement rates for accrued rights, based on the actuarial study prepared by the National Actuarial Authority. In case the actuarial study is not ready, replacement rates are reduced, starting from 1 January 2012, to avoid additional deficits.

Privatisation and better management of state assets

Government publishes a full inventory of commercial state-owned real-estate assets.

To modernise the health care system

Government takes additional measures to promote the use of generic medicines through:

- compulsory doctors' e-prescription by active substance;
- associating a lower cost-sharing rate to generic medicines that have a significantly lower price than the reference price (lower than 60 percent of the reference price) on the basis of the experience of other EU countries;
- setting the maximum price of generics to 60 percent of the branded medicine.

Government extends the use of capitation payment of physician, currently used by OAEE, to all contracts between social security funds and the doctors they contract. The new payment mechanism starts for each new contract renewed in 2011 and for all contracts from 2012. It defines a minimum number of patients per doctor, on the basis of the experience of other EU Member States.

Government moves towards greater equalisation across funds regarding contribution rates and minimum benefit packages, with the aim of full equalisation by 2012 building on Law 3655/2008.

To reduce costs and improve quality of care for patients, Government:
